

MARRIED IN A BUGGY.

Dr. Nourse Pronounces the Ceremony Thursday.

Fairview Couple Married in the Court House By Judge Cansler—Much Matrimony.

Dr. Nourse, pastor of the Ninth street Presbyterian church, was called upon to perform a marriage ceremony under rather unusual conditions yesterday afternoon. A handsome couple drove up to Dr. Nourse's front gate on Campbell street and called for the popular pastor. The latter responded promptly. The young gentleman introduced himself as Mr. E. H. Johnson and his bride elect Miss Ida Fyke. Producing the requisite legal document he requested Dr. Nourse to unite them in wedlock. The ceremony was brief, but impressive and as binding as if it had been pronounced at an altar redolent with the blended incense of flowers and tapers and bright with the light of candelabra. At the conclusion of the ceremony the happy couple drove away. Miss Fyke is a pretty and accomplished young lady, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fyke, of this city. The groom is a prosperous young Todd county farmer.

IN THE CITY COURT.

Colored Women Fined—Boy Arrested For Throwing into a Train.

In the City Court yesterday morning a quintette of colored women were arraigned on a warrant sworn out by Bud Cooley, charging them with breach of the peace. The proof showed that the negro women had gone in a body to Cooley's house, on Durrett Avenue, during the latter's absence and wantonly and maliciously abused and insulted Mrs. Cooley.

She informed her husband upon his return and he promptly had them all arrested. They were fined $5 each, which they settled with the court.

Arthur Kays is a negro boy, young in years but a veteran in crime and mischief. Yesterday morning he threw a rock at a moving train and struck Will Campbell on the ankle. He was arrested and taken before Judge Leavell of the city court. That official turned the culprit over to Judge Cansler and he will be tried under the section of the Statute made and provided in such cases. The penalty is a fine of not less than $200 nor more than $500, or imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term of not less than two nor more than five years. The limit of the law in this case will have a very wholesome tendency.

Notes Of Local Interest From Camp Collier.

Col. Henry Complimented—Third Regiment will Probably Go to Washington—Dr. Bell May Be Promoted.

Dr. Austin Bell, who received the appointment as Second Assistant Surgeon of the Third Regiment, writes to a friend in this city that he has been recommended by Col. Smith as First Assistant Surgeon. Dr. Bell has made a most favorable impression upon all who have met him and is a great favorite with the boys in camp.

The Lexington Herald drops the following graceful and well merited compliment to a gallant Hopkinsville soldier:

"The finest looking soldier in the camp is Lieut.-Col. J. J. Henry, of the Third Regiment, whose home is in Hopkinsville. He is very tall, finely proportioned and handsome. But his good looks have not made him vain. He is kind, considerate and very popular."

Captain Ballance has given notice that he would not muster into the United States Service any volunteer under 21 years of age without the written consent of the applicant's parents or guardian. This caused temporary havoc among the young element in camp and there was a general hurrying and busting in getting letters off to parents and guardians to secure the required consent.

The men in the Second and Third Regiments are all developing colds and sore throats from sleeping on straw, with not half cover to supply their needs. The men are compelled to sleep six or seven in a stall with a blanket for every six men. If there is not a change for the better soon the percentage of those who volunteered will be cut considerably.

George C. Saffrans, first lieutenant Twentieth Infantry, U. S. A., writes that he has not been notified of his appointment as a major of the Third Regiment, and will, of course, take no steps concerning it until he is appointed.

There are four ministers in camp. They are the chaplains of the two regiments and Chaplains Raily and Green, of the Glasgow and Georgetown companies. Captain Perkins, of the Barboursville Cavalry troop, is also a minister.

While for the present all is a matter of theory, it is presumed that the Second Regiment will be called upon to go to Chickamauga, the Third to Washington, and the First held in reserve for United States coast defense.

The soldier boys are thinking of getting up a fire drill. A bucket brigade would be a good thing at Camp Collier. A small fire occurred in the quarters of the Newport company yesterday, but it was soon extinguished.

Up to Wednesday night 256 privates and fourteen officers had been accepted by the Surgeons' Board. The examination proceeded through the Cynthiana, Lexington and Frankfort companies. Capt. Strother, of Winchester, lacked but one man of the required number to muster, and has secured and had examined two more men, making his company number seventy-eight. It was the only company ready for muster yesterday. The Barboursville cavalry company, which came in Wednesday, has 130 men. Only eighty-four men in one company will be taken. The other men will be used in filling vacancies in infantry companies. The Salyersville cavalry arrived yesterday morning.

We know our Ice Cream is the best, because everybody says so. GALBREATH & ENNIS.

Rev. E. E. Berryman, a distinguished evangelist of Princeton, will begin a two weeks' revival at Bennettstown Monday night. A large tent, capable of sheltering one thousand people, has already been erected and great results are expected. The meetings will continue two weeks.

Merritt's New Assignment.

Washington, D. C. May 12.—Gen. Merritt will be military governor of the Philippines. Through one of his advisers the president held a conversation with him over the long-distance telephone to-day and offered him his choice of the commands under Gen. Miles. He was told that he might accompany the army to Cuba at the head of the regulars or come to Washington and direct the movement of the volunteers from this point during the absence of Gen. Miles, or take command of the army of occupation that is going to Manila and remain there as military governor until a permanent government is established. Gen. Merritt thanked the president for his courtesy and accepted the latter proposition. He will leave at once for San Francisco and will be able to reach there before the first troops are embarked, because the expedition will be delayed considerably on account of the inability of the quartermaster's department to furnish the necessary supplies.

It is feared that the first troop ship may not be able to sail before next week.

The cruiser Charleston, however, will leave at once, carrying a load of ammunition, and will stop at Honolulu for coal.
